Sounders at Century Link

It was so fun going with Robin, Jake, and Teddy to watch the Seattle Sounders at Century Link. We sat all the way at the top so we could barely see the players, but the atmosphere was wild - people were chanting cheers and going crazy anytime the Sounders scored. I had never been in a bigger stadium in my whole life, so I really felt the overwhelming spirit, and honestly, that I was a part of this bigger community. I am so glad I live in Seattle.
